Everybody says they want a million bucks But I'd rather have a million days with you My account dosen't go that high It doesn't mean you have to sat goodbye to me Can't promise you a million bucks But I can promise I'll be good to you Everybody wants a million bucks But I'd rather have a million days with you Day one we'd go fishing Dollar movies on day two Days three and four we'd spend in bed Just like we used to A million days with you Would go by much too fast But I've got a million ways for our friendship to last I've got a million ways Everybody says they want a million bucks But I'd rather have a million days with you My account dosen't go that high It doesn't mean you have to sat goodbye to me Day five we would ride our bikes Camping on day six Days seven and eight I'd show you how much I love you A million days with you Would go by much too fast But I've got a million ways for our friendship to last I've got a million ways Everybody says they want a million bucks But I'd rather have a million days with you My account dosen't go that high It doesn't mean you have to sat goodbye to me Can't promise you a million bucks But I can promise I'll be good to you Everybody wants a million bucks But I'd rather have a million days with you A billion days with you A billion days with you