

Jump Out

Eminem

If your roof's on fire
Why are you still standin' in that motherfuckin' building?
Jump out (Man, you better), jump out (While you can)
Jump out (Women and), jump out (Children), jump out
If your ship's sinking 'cause your disc just skipped
Then you ain't singin', you're just lip syncing
Jump out (Climb the window), jump out (Hide your demo)
Jump out (Find a place to), jump out (Hurry up and), jump out

Guess who's back, Mr. Andre Young
You wanted Andre, well, here Andre comes
Dr. Bombay with that bomb bass, what?
I can't hear you, turn the volume up
Spent a few years tryna detox, but
I get high soon as the beat knocks, what?
Rehab clinics turn to re-hashed clinics
And it's relapse and it's back to the lab again, it's (Woo)
Dre day, all over a rebash
Blowin' out your cheap ass ten-inch like that green-grass spinach
Jumpin' out your subwoofer like a motherfucker
We keep 'em jumpin' at the club, here we come, if your

All the ladies in the club (Get down)
All the fellas in the club (Get down)
Any labels in the house, it's Aftermath now
Better (Jump out), or get shut down

You have no clue as to what I'm about to do
Shut 'em up 2001, shut 'em down 2002
2003 they studied to calculate all my moves
But if I don't make a hit, then I don't come out the room
Then I just pop out, right out the blue
This is just a test, turn your volume knob to two (Woo!)
Holler back, raise the roof, I'll be back with the lab results
To let you know if it goes through

California, I tried to warn ya
2006, look who's creepin' up on ya
If I don't know ya, man, you better freeze frame

Still cockin' 'em thangs, put that on everything
Listen what the song say, chill and let the beats play
Like Pac would say, "Slow down, take it easy"
Just sometimes, I struggle with it," 'cause some rhymes
Don't always come out the way that I want 'em to sound
The beats don't always pound like I want 'em to pound
But perfection is, oh, such a wonderful sound
Three thousand watts of Watts
Compton, Long Beach watch as I crank it up another notch
Top down, pistol in the trunk, here I come
Listen to the bass thump, you can hear me beatin' up the block
And if anyone asks ya your response, just say to ask the doctor
The Loch Ness Monster's back, so if your
