

Skylar Montgomery?

What do you want from me Roger?

I know it was you all along messing around with my dear Veronica.

Wait a minute. You hold it right there. Me and that woman love each other.

Love? What do you know of love?

We were destined to be together. I met her on the beach...

Are you out to destroy me?

No, Roger. That's not what I want to do. I love her! And we're gonna be together, never.
