

Devil In The Business Class

Emir Kusturica The no smoking orchestra

Welcome aboard dear passingers
This is your devil speaking
The emergency exit is on your right
Don't forget this is a no smoking flight

For all the shit you've done in history
I'm the one always to be blamed
For all your mistakes that you cannot named
The devil is guilty, the devil again

The time has come for you to know
I am victim of propaganda war

We are cruising at 20000 feet
Imagine how it must be cold
You can see an old person on the clouds
That person, that is God

He has hard hard time dealing with you all
It high time now for new standards to be set
I can help you with a friendly advice
Let's sign peace agreement, wouldn't it be nice?

The time...

I'm talking to you in the business class
You are the ones who can understand
You have the power, you have the means
Sponsor my action if you please

The time has come...
