

Mirror

Emitt Rhodes

Hollow empty face - one side dark, one light
Scars I can't erase and looks I try to hide

The mirror always knows
The mirror always shows
Woh, the mirror always knows

Lonely leaking words I've often tried to stop
It's hard to hear myself when I'm listening with my heart

The mirror always knows
The mirror always shows
Woh, the mirror always knows

I've been looking for safety
There's none to be found
I've been looking for safety
Where there's no safe ground
Mmm, the mirror always knows

I've been looking for safety
There's none to be found
I've been looking for safety
Where there's no safe ground
Mmm, the mirror always knows

Hollow empty face with one side dark one light
Scars I can't erase and looks I try to hide

The mirror always knows
The mirror always shows
Oh, the mirror always knows

The mirror always knows
The mirror always shows
Oh, the mirror always knows

I've been looking for safety
Where there's no safe ground
