

I swear I saw you
on page 32
between America and Asian in your United Kingdom Suit
if I turned the page, would you fall all the way to Amsterdam?
I thought we could meet for tea in julianmahal

you could have a mistress hidden up in York
and I would be the fool behind the blue atlantic door
an inch on the page is 700 to vienna to vienna
I thought we could meet for tea
in julian

and I can find anyone
to make for you
nothing else would awaken me
like the love of you
like the love of you

if I had my way,
I'd dig up moes
sea-parting blue prince of a dozen roses
I would be yours
and you would be mine
be mine
but instead we could meet for tea in julianahaal

and I can find anyone
to make for you
like the love of you
like the love of you

na saan ka
I need you to be here
na saan ka

to make for you

like the love of you
