

Mary Jill

Emm Gryner

Yes it's gonna be
Yes it's gonna be

I'll save you from the demons
You shake hands with
I'll save you from the dragon's kiss
Yes you have love
Yes you wear that ring on your invisible finger
But I'll be here if you should come to me

If skies turn red and remind you
Of a day when pretty colours bled
And made you miss someone
Yes you have love,
In your hand a song
That you can sing in the darkness
And I'll be here if you should come to me

Hey don't give in Mary Jill
You know I know you well
And I know it's gonna be alright
Oh yea
I know it's gonna be alright

Keep your creed
And the highlights
And your laughter
You live one door down from the truth

When at the end
Dry and ragged
You must sing in the darkness
And I'll be here if you should come to me

Hey don't give in Mary Jill
You know I know you well
And I know it's gonna be alright
Oh yea
I know it's gonna be alright

And angel will come down upon you
When you're feeling restless
And you are not all by yourself
When autumn brings a chill
I remember
I remember the air you walked into
On this day someone's watching over you

Yes it's gonna be
Yes it's gonna be

Hey don't give in Mary Jill
You know I know you well
And I know it's gonna be alright
Oh yea
I know it's gonna be alright
