

Bad

Emma Bale

We drew a line, said goodbye
As soon as you're moving on
There's something that's pulling me back
Your look at me is telling me
You're struggling to let go
I wanna do things you'll regret

All your good intentions fade away when I'm around

I only want it bad when you don't want it
Then I want it, then I want it bad
It's only when I'm sad and if I'm honest
Think it's funny, that I want it
I only want it bad when you don't want it
Then I want it, then I want it bad
It's only when I'm sad and if I'm honest
Think it's funny, that I want it bad

Bad, bad
That I want it bad
Bad, bad
That I want it bad

The game we play, manipulate, I'm tryna control myself
The tension is making me sweat
The irony, our chemistry, built on the pain we cause
I know I can't make you forget, mmh

All your good intentions fade away when I'm around

I only want it bad when you don't want it
Then I want it, then I want it bad
It's only when I'm sad and if I'm honest
Think it's funny, that I want it
I only want it bad when you don't want it
Then I want it, then I want it bad
It's only when I'm sad and if I'm honest
Think it's funny, that I want it bad

Bad, bad
That I want it bad
Bad, bad
That I want it bad

I only want it bad when you don't want it
Then I want it, then I want it bad
It's only when I'm sad and if I'm honest
Think it's funny, that I want it
I only want it bad when you don't want it
Then I want it, then I want it bad
It's only when I'm sad and if I'm honest
Think it's funny, that I want it bad

Know we're going nowhere
Still I wanna see what's there
I only want it bad when you don't want it
Then I want it, then I want it bad

Bad, bad
(It's only when I'm sad and if I'm honest
Think it's funny, that I want it bad)
Bad, bad
(It's only when I'm sad and if I'm honest
Think it's funny, that I want it bad)
Bad, bad
(It's only when I'm sad and if I'm honest
Think it's funny, that I want it bad)
Then I want it, then I want it bad

That I want it
Bad, bad
