

Boy Bye

Emma Bale

You thought I'd worry
That I've made the wrong decision
But I'm moving on way faster than I thought

I think I've grown out
Your destructive efforts
Still you're holding on to all the things we loved

You want me to come back
Like I want you anytime
Now I'm here with somebody
Now it's the sad boy you play out
And again I'm falling
Yet again that's no surprise
Thought I left it behind

But I don't want this
You think I want you back
But I'm so over this
Boy bye
And I'm not homesick
You think I want you back
But I'm so over this For now?

Friends keep asking why we're not together
So I guess you haven't told 'em what you did
Oh You may be sorry
It's not better late than never
And I think this time I'm glad we called it quits

You want me to come back
Like I want you anytime
Now it's the sad boy you play out
And again I'm falling
Yet again that's no surprise
Thought I left it behind

But I don't want this
You think I want you back
But I'm so over this
Boy bye
And I'm not homesick
You think I want you back
But I'm so over this
For now?

But we gotta stop the playing round
The playing round
For Gods sake
Oh we gotta stop the playing round
It's more than we can take
Oh we gotta stop this playing round
The playing round

But I don't want this
But I'm so over this
Boy bye
But I'm so over this
For now?
