

Everything You Are

Emma Bale

I feel a certain heat, oh
Pheromones drag me where you are
I wanna get closer
You were mine
But I tried to hard
To get to know all about you

I tried to stay as close
I know that I should explore some more
Feel like I'm running out of time

If you're ever coming over
I will never let go
I would die for everything you are
Every minute every hour
I would never say no
I would die for everything you are
Every minute every hour
I would never say no
I would die for everything you are

My feels are on repeat, oh
I've been tryna get some air
Cus all I've been breathing is you
And I feel alive but all I do is long for the moment I can scent you again

I want you to stay
Cus I, I've seen my prey and I
I know I'm running out of time

If you're ever coming over
I will never let go
I would die for everything you are
Every minute every hour
I would never say no
I would die for everything you are
If you're ever coming over
I will never let go
I would die for everything you are
Every minute every hour
I would never say no
I would die for everything you are
