

Fortune Cookie

Emma Bale

Tutu turu turu tu
Tutu turu turu tu

They say Emma, you don't understand
You will need a helping hand
They say Emma, you're still way too young
Just be quiet, bite your tongue

Maybe I should listen to the ones who say there's Only black and white and only one right way
All I need is time to figure this all out
And why am I waiting on the other side
And why do you say I'm wrong when you know I'm right
I need lucky numbers and a Chinese phrase
In a fortune cookie on rainy days
And I say

I say Emma, you will make it far
But only by being who you are (Mmmmm)
So I say let them talk and don't be shy (Ooooh oooh)
Emma, keep your head up high

I no longer listen to the ones who say there's
Only black and white and only one right way
Give me some time and I will figure it all out
And why am I waiting on the other side
And why do you say I'm wrong when you know I'm right
I need lucky numbers and a Chinese phrase
In a fortune cookie on rainy days
And I say

And I, I'm waiting on the other side
And why do you say I'm wrong when you know I'm right
I need lucky numbers and a Chinese phrase
In a fortune cookie on rainy days
I say
