

Joan

Emma Bale

Why don't you come?
Why don't you come?

I'm a fighting girl
Taking chances
In the burning world
Breathing ashes
I walk through the flames
For better days

The fire burns
No second chances
It's hard to learn
But I'm leaving traces
In the falling rain
Of better days

Why don't you share the load yeah?
My heart is strong enough
It beats like Joan of Arc it's true
So don't cry
I don't want you to be alone yeah
My heart is strong enough
It beats like Joan of Arc it's true
So don't cry

And why don't you come?
Why don't you come?
Come to me, come to me darling

Desire hurts
For new romances
I'd cross the earth
For your sweet glances
If you're ready babe
There's better ways

Even when locked in chains
I overpower
It's what you deserve
After the darkest hours
Let me lead the way
Now don't you be afraid

Why don't you share the load yeah?
My heart is strong enough
It beats like Joan of Arc it's true
So don't cry
I don't want you to be alone yeah
My heart is strong enough
It beats like Joan of Arc it's true
So don't cry

And why don't you come?
Why don't you come?
Come to me, come to me darling
Why don't you come?

Why don't you come?

Why don't you share the load yeah?
My heart is strong enough
It beats like Joan of Arc it's true
So don't cry
I don't want you to be alone yeah
My heart is strong enough
It beats like Joan of Arc it's true
So don't cry

And why don't you come?
Why don't you come?
Come to me, come to me darling
