

Moonchild

Emma Bale

You said that you needed time
One day I hope you could really be mine
You said that you find it hard too choose
Cus one heart you win the other you lose

Oh oh oh, why do I stay with you
Oh oh oh, I just orbit around you

You're my moonchild
You're my moonchild
You're my moonchild
You're my moon

You're floating around my head forever
My happiness depends on when we're together
I'm superstitious, not much suspicious
But you make me feel like I should be
Yeah, you make me feel like I should be
Yeah, you make me feel like I should be
Yeah, you make me feel like I should

You're my moonchild
You're my moonchild
You're my moonchild
You're my moon
You're my moonchild
You're my moonchild
You're my moonchild
You're my moon

Tell me where you go
Tell me where you go
Tell me are you lost on me
Holding to a rope
Holding to a rope
Hold it like you're lost at sea
I see you float away from me

Oh oh oh, why do I stay with you
Oh oh oh, there's nothing I can do
Oh oh oh, I just orbit around you

You're my moonchild
You're my moonchild
You're my moonchild
You're my moon
You're my moonchild
You're my moonchild
You're my moonchild
You're my moon
