Run

Emma Bale

Run to the water and see
No one knows, except for me
And I know time has come
So run to the water, baby, run

Take my hand, I'll give you strength
Guide you home through forgotten lands
See the world that's at your feet
If you close your eyes, you'll never see the deep

Run to the water, baby
Run to the water
Run to the water, baby
Run

Whatever it is, you know that I'll guide you
Wherever you go, you know that I'll find you
Nothing can take you, lead you away from home
Whenever you need me, I'll be beside you
Carry you with me, I'll light the way back home
The way back home

Run to the water and see
Trust yourself and you'll be free
