

RAINDROP

Emma Hewitt

She was a stranger
Who everybody thought that they knew
The world that contained her
She always kept hidden from view

In time, she slipped away
It's been oh so long
And now that she's breaking
There's nothing anybody can do...

Take it away
Just let it be over
The girl's at the final stage
Going over that line
And we'll never really know just why...

She was a raindrop
Falling behind them
Always let the wrong boy stay
And now she's out of her mind
I guess she'll never be alone at night...

When all that you're facing
Finds a way of getting to you
And there's no replacing
What everybody's stolen from you...

Take it away
Just let it be over
The girl's at the final stage
Going over that line
And we'll never really know just why...

She was a raindrop
Falling behind them
Always let the wrong boy stay
And now she's out of her mind
I guess she'll never be alone at night...

I know it seems like I forgot her
As time goes by without her now, now...

Through it all
Through it all
Through it all
Time goes by
And through it all
Time goes by

Take it away
Just let it be over
The girl's at the final stage
Going over that line
And we'll never really know just why...

She was a raindrop
Falling behind them

Always let the wrong boy stay
Going out of her mind
I guess she'll never be alone at night...

I know it seems like I forgot her
As time goes by without her now, now...
