

WARRIOR

Emma Hewitt

It doesn't feel the same
Beyond the breaking waves
There's no defeated hearts
With just a little faith

And so I wait for you
Through the faded light
It's the start of another day
And we will shine again
I promise

I am the warrior
Who came to fight your cause
And I am the lion
When the wolf's outside your door
Cause you are the right
In all of the wrong
For all of our lives
You can know that we are
The only ones
We are the only ones

You won't feel the same
Out beyond the waves
There's no retreating now
So baby keep your faith
(I promise)

I am the warrior
Who came to fight your cause
And I am the lion
When the wolf's outside your door
Cause you are the right
In all of the wrong
For all of our lives
You can know that we are
The only ones
We are the only ones

I am the warrior
Who came to fight your cause
And I am the lion
When the wolf's outside your door
Cause you are the right
In all of the wrong
For all of our lives
You can know that we are
The only ones
We are the only ones
