Cold

Emma Steinbakken

Only said it 'cause I meant it and I'm not gonna take it back
When I want it, then I get it and I want you back
You blame it on the timing but I'mma give you all the time I ha ve
And if you show me all your demons, I ain't scared of that
No, not at all

Just know when you push away when I get too close
Don't think I'll be letting you go
When you freeze me out to leave you alone
Don't think I can't handle the cold
Don't think I can't handle the cold

I know that it could be better but it could be way, way worse
So I'mma stay here, I'mma love you even when it hurts
You can blame it on whatever, you can try to shut me out
But when you do that you know that I will stick around
And after all

Just know when you push away when I get too close
Don't think I'll be letting you go
When you freeze me out to leave you alone
Don't think I can't handle the cold
Don't think I can't handle the cold
