

Dance

Emma Steinbakken

Out on the streets till break of dawn
Shirt half torn apart and you're wearing a tote bag as a crown
In the middle of the road screaming out your favorite songs
By some rapper that none of my friends have heard about

And you dance
Like nobody's watching
And you sing out of tune and you kiss the wrong dudes
But hey fuck it

Yeah you dance
Like nobody's watching
And you sing out of tune and you kiss the wrong dudes
And I love it

You smile in every pic' they take
You don't give a shit 'bout putting on a pretty face
And I'm scared of you, but I envy you
You do exactly what you wanna do

And you dance
Like nobody's watching
And you sing out of tune and you kiss the wrong dudes
But hey fuck it

You don't care
If anyone's watching
You ignite every room with your bad attitude
And I love it

I wanna be just like you
'Cause I wanna feel how it feels to be you

When you dance
Like nobody's watching
When you sing out of tune and you kiss the wrong dudes
'Cause you want to

I will dance
Like somebody's watching
I will sing out of tune and you'll kiss the wrong dudes
But hey fuck it

(I will dance, I will dance)

I will dance
