

Hold My Breath

Emma Steinbakken

Don't even look in my eyes no more
You won't even fight when we disagree
Our house don't feel like a home no more
Like a stranger you're lying next to me

All the voices in my head
If I find somebody else
Would that be better than this?
I wonder if you feel the same
If we go down that lane
So many things I'm gonna miss

Maybe if we close our eyes for a second
We count all the reasons, forget our mistakes
Yeah, even if it's bad right now I can't fake it
Don't wanna be naked with no one but you

And if my lungs run out of air
I'd hold my breath for you
So maybe we can make it through?

We used to sit on the balcony
Smoking cigarettes, you were so obsessed with me
What happened to all those little things?
Just a simple touch got me shaking down to my knees

All the voices in my head
If I find somebody else
Would that be better than this?
I wonder if you feel the same
If we go down that lane
So many things I'm gonna miss

Maybe if we close our eyes for a second
We count all the reasons, forget our mistakes
Yeah, even if it's bad right now I can't fake it
Don't wanna be naked with no one but you

And if my lungs run out of air
I'd hold my breath for you
So maybe we can make it through?
