

SO GOOD

Emma Steinbakken

So, so good
So, so good
So, so good

Staying up for hours, got you on my mind
Like you got superpowers 'cause I can't leave you behind
Thinking 'bout your body, want you close to mine
Oh, mine

I'm not thinking straight with you on my brain
I can't catch a break, no
My head is a maze, every single way leads me back to you

Tell me why you feel so good
So, so good
So, so good
Tell me why you feel so good
So, so good
So, so good

This feels picture perfect, don't want it to end
'Cause every time you leave me, I want you back again
We just went from strangers to lovers, then to friends
Oh, my

I'm not thinking straight with you on my brain
I can't catch a break, no
My head is a maze, every single way leads me back to you

Tell me why you feel so good
So, so good
So, so good
Tell me why you feel so good
So, so good
So, so good

And I know that you give me something tonight, tonight, tonight
And it feels so good
So, so good
So, so good
Tell me why you feel so good
Why you feel so good
