

Sorry

Emma Steinbakken

And I said, I said I'm sorry

I don't know, but lately everything's a little off
And it's hard for me to say when nothing's wrong
But I can't stay at where I don't belong
And I think you know

'Cause when you look at me
You see who I used to be
Still got my eyes, my name
But baby, I'm not the same
I hate to hurt you now
And everyone's gonna hate it
Put it all on me
But I said, I said I'm sorry

And I said, I said I'm sorry
And I said, I said I'm sorry

It is what it is
But I grew a little faster than I thought
So I had to cut you off
This can't be it
I need a little more to get enough
I hope you know

'Cause when you look at me
See who I used to be
Still got my eyes, my name
But baby, I'm not the same
I hate to hurt you now
And everyone's gonna hate it
Put it all on me
But I said, I said I'm sorry

It is what it is
But I grew a little faster than I thought
But baby I'm not the same
I hate to hurt you now
And everyone's gonna hate it
Put it all on me
But I said, I said I'm sorry

And I said, I said I'm sorry
And I said, I said I'm sorry

No, this is not, not what I meant
Did what I could, but it's out of my hands
Don't put it on me
When I said, I said I'm sorry
This is not, not what I meant
Did what I could, but it's out of my hands
Don't put it on me
When I said, I said I'm sorry
