Emmure

Ladies, gentlemen, and boys

Here we go once again
It's time to get dumb with the realness

Always they have hated
They have doubted, they have given up on me
So I'm asking if you're out there
Anyone that's listening
It's our time, it's our place
What we love is what we know
If you're still with me after all these years

Here we go once again
It's time to get dumb with the realness

Talking shit but you're checking out
The same old shit
Talking shit but you're checking out
You go hard but not like this

Here we go once again
It's time to get dumb with the realness, oh

Bitch, I get stupid
Bitch, I get stupid
Kill that shit

Finally understanding nothing
