

Thunder Mouth

Emmure

You wanna hear about the ups and downs and things that may be
How they fall apart
But anything profound that I might say, it will be ignored, forgotten
So who even gives a fuck?
Bet your ass that you fucking know I don't

I know
You know
There is nothing you can take from me
I am eternal
All that is and whatever will be
I know
You know
There is nothing you can take from me
I am eternal

You already crucified your so-called savior
So it figures you tear me down, it is your learned behavior

You deserve no gods
You deserve no gods

I know
You know
There is nothing you can take from me
I am eternal
All that is and whatever will be

I know
You know
There is nothing you can take from me
I am eternal
