

Torch

Emmure

I did not pass the torch
Just to be engulfed by the flames
I'm breathing fire to survive
Burn it down
Rising from the ashes
I'm here to take back what is mine
I used to call you friend
What a fucking waste of time
I cannot believe that you would ever try
And fucking take away from me
The only thing I care about or I believe
Now I'm having trouble letting go
Of knowing you were always
Living, eating,
Breathing, cashing in on all my misery
Tell me now
Do you see?
You cannot do this without me.
I did not pass the torch
Just to be engulfed by the flames
Do you know now?
You're nothing without me
