

Breakthrough

Emmy Meli

One, two, three

Holy shit, I think I had a breakthrough (Breakthrough)
Drinkin' whiskey all up in this breakroom
I've been slidin' down a wall, thinkin' "Why hasn't he called?"
Holy shit, I think I had a breakthrough
Thought we were in love
But I actually hate you

They told me, "Never date a Virgo"
'Cause they're impossible to please
He did me dirty from the get go
But then he brought me to my knees, and I'm like
"Oh, my God, need to stop, boy, you're messin' up my mood"
(And I ain't fuckin' with you)
He had me back and forth, we rollin' like a thunder
Am I the one? He love to make me wonder
What's he gonna do? What's he gonna ruin tonight?
Oh, yeah, babe

Why, why, why do I even try, babe?

Holy shit, I think I had a breakthrough (Breakthrough)
Drinkin' whiskey all up in this breakroom
I've been slidin' down (Slidin') a wall, thinkin' "Why hasn't he called?" (C alled me)
Holy shit, I think I had a breakthrough
Thought we were in love
But I actually hate you
It's all true, I'm better off without you

He need me, he want me, build me like origami
Just to tear me down again and tell me that he love me (He love me)
Judge Judy in this bitch, he been ratin' my shit
Then fillin' me up like, "Ah-ah"
I'm innocent, your honor, he been trickin' and screamin'
Fuckin' me up like, "Ah-ah"

Why, why, why do I even try, ayy, yeah, baby?

Holy shit, I think I had a breakthrough (Breakthrough)
Drinkin' whiskey all up in this breakroom
I've been slidin' down (Slidin') a wall, thinkin' "Why hasn't he called?" (C

Holy shit, I think I had a breakthrough (Should've known, never date a Virgo
Holy shit, I think I had a breakthrough (Mm, I tried to turn a square into a circle)
Holy shit, I think I had a breakthrough
Holy shit, I think I had a breakthrough
Thought we were in love

It's all true, I'm better off without you
