

Back & Forth

Emotional Oranges

I said I'm done, but still you act like that guy
I can't believe we're in this deep, let me remind you
On and off and way too often, wasting all our time
You and I, we ain't been talking it's all on my mind

Back & forth, back & forth baby
Sometimes
And we just going back & forth, back & forth babe
Sometimes

Said it once, said it twice but you don't remember
Hope to get me back but you won't forget me
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Said it once, said it twice but you don't remember
Hope to get me back but you won't affect me
Yeah, yeah, yeah

The way you talking, I be feeling damn you fine
I'm tryna feel your shit on top of me tonight

Give it to me your way
Old times, you would give it to me all day
No lie, I be missing it like always Sometimes when I'm tripping, I be thinking like damn will she call

Back & forth, back & forth baby
Sometimes
And we just going back & forth, back & forth babe
Sometimes

Said it once, said it twice but you don't remember
Hope to get me back but you won't forget me
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Said it once, said it twice but you don't remember
Hope to get me back but you won't affect me
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Back and forth, back and forth
But I know you won't tell nobody

Back and forth, back and forth
But I know you won't tell nobody

Where's the trouble in you loving me back?
Life is better when there's nothin attached
I can never see me doin' you wrong
Though it's never how they say in them songs
Broken record tell you sorry, you know
Heard it before
Burden my soul
Brighten my day
Makin' me whole
Driftin' away, promise you'd stay
But that's the way that it goes
No hard feelings, I guess

Too hard living in stress
Livin' it up
Heart broke, still I'm in love
Don't go givin' it up
Still wanna fuck
Ain't no healing these cuts
Trust and believe
You sayin' ain't no nigga like the one you got
Well cuh not fuckin' with me

Said it once, said it twice but you don't remember
Hope to get me back but you won't forget me
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Said it once, said it twice but you don't remember
Hope to get me back but you won't affect me
Yeah, yeah, yeah
