

Beg You

Emotional Oranges

Ooh, now listen up
Need your attention
Know she like my tone when I get rough
Give her praise to lift her up
Ooh, it's tempting huh
Feel it from a distant zone
All in your bones the temperature
Just say, uh, if it's too much

They all just mansplain
I want to turn you on
We'll find a better way
Just let me land the plane
Just let me land the plane
Just let me land the plane
I'm tired of the same thing

I need more
Come make I beg, come make I beg ya
10 kilos
Come make I beg, come make I beg ya
Give me more
Come make I beg, come make I beg ya
100 kilos
Come make I beg, come make I beg ya

Once I start my wave
Hits like a hurricane
You ain't felt no better days
Meet you at Saint-Tropez
Just name a time and place
Rendezvous and hide aways
Want to feel the sand on my toes
While you slide off my clothes slowly
You ain't seen no skin soft and golden like this Boy keep focused on me

Say she's looking for me now
But she looking for revenge
Said she act like a sweetheart
But she's all under pretense
I'm addicted, I'm afflicted
And I'm searching for your love
And I'm trying to get off it
But it feels just like
And I'm caught up in these feelings
'Cause your love is like a drug
It keeps pullin', pullin', pullin' me back, oh

I need more
Come make I beg, come make I beg ya
10 kilos
Come make I beg, come make I beg ya
Give me more
Come make I beg, come make I beg ya
100 kilos
Come make I beg, come make I beg ya

Come make I beg, come make I beg ya
Come make I beg, come make I beg ya
Come make I beg, come make I beg ya
Come make I beg, come make I beg ya
