

Better Apart

Emotional Oranges

We don't say it now, can't admit we were so wrong about this
We were intertwined
Like a tree and vine, grown in silence
We don't show it now, but I can tell every single tear we poured has run out
Looking back on us and now it all feels shallow

Say it's all or nothin', oh why?
When we know we're falling out
Hanging on to nothin', no lie
We're better apart
Say it's all or nothin', oh why?
When we know we're falling out
Hanging on to nothin', no lie
We're better apart

It's hard letting go of a familiar thing
Telling myself it'll be OK
Close my eyes, hear you call my name
Said it's hard keeping cool when I feel this way
Telling myself all these things'll change
Close my eyes, hear you call my name

So enigmatic, wait, am I too dramatic?
Wait, can't shake old habits, they keep haunting me
But you had the magic with me
No going backwards with me
How'd you decide it ain't me?

Say it's all or nothin', oh why?
When we know we're falling out
Hanging on to nothin', no lie
We're better apart
Say it's all or nothin', oh why?
When we know we're falling out
Hanging on to nothin', no lie
We're better apart
