

Someone Else

Emotional Oranges

I shared my mind with you
Invest my time on you
Don't know what I won't do
For you, you, you (You, you, you)
You play the waiting game
Too good to take the blame
You're searching for the fame
You're too far gone

There's so many things on my mind
(On my mind, on my mind)
You push me to the edge, sometimes
(Edge sometimes, the edge sometimes)
We go back and forth, sometimes
(We go back, we go back)
No, I don't want to waste your time

Yeah, you want that someone else for real (For real, real)
You're looking for something else, for real
Yeah, you need that someone who's too real (Too real, real)
If you want that something else, go and get it, baby

Showed all my sides to you
Swallowed my pride for you
You know what I would do
For you, for you
You say I changed on you
Could say the same for you
But what you ain't gon' do, baby
Is break me down

There's so many things on my mind
(On my mind, on my mind)
You push me to the edge, sometimes
(Edge sometimes, the edge sometimes)
We go back and forth, sometimes
(We go back and, we go back and)
No, I don't want to waste your time

Yeah, you want that someone else for real (For real, real)
You're looking for something else, for real
Yeah, you need that someone who's too real (Too real, real)
If you want that something else, go and get it, baby

I see the shame deep in your eyes
Just let it out, what's on your mind?
Keep all of the games and all of the lies
Just don't involve me, don't cross the line

Yeah, you want that someone else for real (For real, real)
You're looking for something else, for real
Yeah, you need that someone who's too real (Too real, real)
If you want that something else, go and get it, baby

For real, real
For real, real
For real, real

For real, real, real, real
