Do they make you feel cool?

And I wish you could be with me

We'd be riding down 101 (101)
Do you wanna build a snowman?

But your momma know I always with them girl, them sugar
And no matter what I say
She always think I play Mr. Lover-lover
She always think I'm tryna act a fool with it
But I can't run with you no more, now I know, dude, hit it

Ay, it's a crying-ass shame
When you have a bad dream you can come up in my room
Come up in my room 'cause I'm livin' in LA
And you livin' in New York, so what we gon' do?
Son, what we gon' do?
It's just too much for us to talk about
And you're too young to even know how we can work it out

So you live with your momma
And stay with me in the summer
We split up the custody
Since your momma can't keep a trust in me

Ay, Tiana, this is so important
'Cause I don't feel like I'm his daddy no more
