Closest to me done switched up on me
Days are longin', nights are lonely
It's betta than knowin' cause
Now I have know it bet'

Whooo, sittin' back, reminiscin'
Of how I used to get down and dirty with ya
I pull up on a hot block and come and get ya
With a pistol cocked to handle all issues
But never would I thought in a million wishes
After all we stood for you would start snitchin'
I disregarded lessons that were shared with me
Cuz I was taught I'm not supposed to trust any
It's hard to see the frame when you're in the picture
But now the picture's faded, bitch - I'm done witcha
So gon' head, handle yo business
And here I am cause I come into business
