

They Don't Know

Empire Cast

They can see us falling out
But I can see us fall in line
They can see us coming down
But I can see us going high

Selfish teardrops fall from memories
I broke yioru heart
No more crying now

They think our picture is broken
Well, maybe it was out of focus
They don't know we're gone
They don't know we're gone
Our silver lining is broken
Baby, we just need to hold on
They don't know we're gone
They don't know we're gone

They say we lost our way
We won't get to find each other
So even in a thousand pieces
We can put it back together

Selfish teardrops fall from memories
I broke yioru heart
No more crying now

They think our poicture is broken
Well maybe it was out of focus
They don't know we're gone
They don't know we're gone
Our silver lining is broken
Baby, we just need to hold on
They don't know we're gone
They don't know we're gone

They don't know we're gone
