

Trapped

Empire Cast

Empire
Jamal, Hakeem

It's getting kinda heavy, I can't handle all the baggage
Never thought that I would have to kick another habit
Can't believe I let you get away with so much damage
Look at me
You did my heart so wrong (so wrong)
One minute you love me, the next minute you don't (you don't)
Why's it so hard let you alone? (let you alone)
Baby, I don't wanna do it no more

Because love is like a drug
And you must be the plug
Because you got me
(Trapped, trapped, trapped, trapped, trapped)
And you must be the plug (I am, I am)
(Trapped, trapped, trapped, trapped, trapped)
And you must be the plug

You codeine, you morphine
I need caffeine so I can wake up from this bad dream
Run up in the spot, give me what you got
We'll be in and out (We'll be in and out)
Baby, rockabye
Run up in the spot, give me what you got
We'll be in and out (We'll be in and out)
Baby, rockabye

Why is so hard to let you alone? (Let you alone)
Baby, I don't wanna do it no more

Because love is like a, is like a drug
And you must be the plug
Because you got me
(Trapped, trapped, trapped, trapped, trapped)
And you must be the plug (gonna let you get away)
(Trapped, trapped, trapped, trapped, trapped)
And you must...

I need caffeine so I can wake up from this bead dream (let's go)
