

Why Not

Empire Cast

Crown got my name on it
Bow to the royal prince
Started in this game and right now I'm gonna finish it
Down but not limited
Pain is my benefit
When you take a lion out the jungle this is what you get RAH!

Come and ride with the mob yeah
Oh You better get up on your job yeah
All that cappin' gotta do it from the side yeah
Make sure you don't cross the line when I slide yeah

I've been bent but I'm unbroken
Got some regrets but I know where I'm going
Cause in the end, its never the end
You know I'll get up and still come back for more

I put it on the line
Every dollar every dime
Why not
I made it through the fire
Came out on the other side
Shout out to my enemies
No this ain't the end of me
Keep that same energy
Wonder why I'm winning
Ayyyyyyyyyyyyye
Why not
Ayyyyyyyyyyyyye
Why not

Ooooh
Stop it no you can't stop it
You know I'm poppin'
Ooooh
Option no other option
I gotta pop shit

Pretty girls in my lamb and they lapping it up
Light skinned, dark skinned no I don't give a (fk)

And We be getting money yeah you already know
We been putting in the work and now we're running the show,
And when we move, there ain't nothing that we can't do
And you can't break us

Its a celebration
Come and join the conversation
Yeah you know the reputation
So baby don't you ever play yourself

I've been bent but I'm unbroken

I put it on the line
Why not
I made it through the fire
Wonder why I'm winning
Ayyyyyyyyyye
Why not

Out of the ashes a star in the making
I'm Thriving steady surviving while y'all just getting by
No need to fake it to make it cause the money never lies
