

Wounds

Empire Cast

Ooh
Yeah, yeah
Yeah

No one gets out with a clean slate, do they? (No)
It's the price of war in love that we pay, yeah
We should leave this where it was
'Cause the memory's just too much
How did it feel to watch my heart break? Yeah

Tell me, who do you think you are?
Tell me, who do you think you are?
Tell me, who do you think you are?
I know this wound's gonna heal
But there'll always be a scar
Ooh, oh, ooh-oooh

You burned a hole right through my brain, yeah (yes, you did)
And the games you played drove me insane (drove me insane), oh,
yeah
So we should leave this and not look back (yeah)
I'm tryna heal but you ain't helpin' that Lookin' me in my face like it was nothin' (nothin')

So tell me, who do you think you are?
Tell me, who do you think you are?
Tell me, who do you think you are?
I know this wound's gonna heal
But there'll always be a scar
Be a scar, be a scar (oh yeah)

Say, oh
Can you say, oh
Let me hear you say, oh
I know this wound's gonna heal
But there'll always be a scar, yeah
