

Romance To Me

Empire of the Sun

I haven't seen you in ages
But it's not as bleak as it seems
The tears have stained all the pages
It is all a romance to be

Since you've been gone, I've faded
But I reach out and you go forth
My ears have gone in phases
It is all a romance to me

Romance to me
Romance I see

There's a joy in my eyes, I can't deny but only to those who knows me
Replaced by the sadness and longing
Is the romance you'd given to me

I still hear the bells when I walk
But the movie has changed its key
I'm touched by your breath as I sleep
It is all a romance to me

Romance to me
Romance I see

Romance to me
Romance I see
