

Intruder

Empires

All the pretty and charmed collide.
On dead summers wildest nights.
And I'm guilty.
Worse than red hot dreams when you lay dreaming next to me.

Oh we lay out and we taunt the moon.
Make it really rude.
Are you the devil? Did you touch you?
We'll never be the same.
You're lovely when you speak to me way down in misery.

I don't wanna find you. I don't wanna find you.
I don't wanna find you, find you in my home.
No I don't wanna find you in my home.

Stay with me and have me in your hot jealousy.
Nothing will offend the way we are like the way we'll be.
But revenge is so sweet.

And we'll lay out.
And we'll taunt the moon.
We'll make it real rude.
I'll be the devil if that suits you.
Oh we'll be on our way.
But we will never take the fall.
But we already caved in...

I don't wanna find you. I don't wanna find you.
I don't wanna find you, find you in my home.
No I don't wanna find you in my home.

Oh I don't wanna take you home again.
Oh I don't wanna take you home again.
Oh I don't wanna take you home again... but I'll take you on.
I'll take you on.
I'll take you on.
I'll take you on.

I don't wanna find you. I don't wanna find you.
I don't wanna find you, find you in my home.
No I don't wanna find you in my home.

I don't wanna find you. I don't wanna find you.
I don't wanna find you, find you in my home.
No I don't wanna find you in my home.

I don't wanna find you. I don't wanna find you.
I don't wanna find you, find you in my home.
No I don't wanna find you in my home.

I don't wanna find you. I don't wanna find you.
I don't wanna find you, find you in my home.
No I don't wanna find you in my home.
