

Night Is Young

Empires

Woo hoo hoo

Someone's got their hands on you
And not the way you want 'em to
But you ain't got a real fight
Oh, living in your eyes

Somewhere in your newest fears
Oh, Sunday morning won't appear
And I say, oh, the night, oh, the night is young
Oh, I say, oh, the night, oh, the night is young

Woo hoo hoo

Maybe it's your young age
Oh, holding like a prison cage
You think you'll grow old
In the same damn place

You're always thinking of somewhere
Oh, 'cause anything is better than here
You're screwing for love
'cause it gets you there

Somewhere in your newest fears
Oh, Sunday morning won't appear
Oh, I say, oh, the night, oh, the night is young
Oh, I say, oh, the night, oh, the night is young
The night is young

You know your daddy lived hard
And it took his heart
Go out and knock on his grave
To see if he'll wake up

He'll slap you right in the face
Say, "Oh, honey, hey
I don't think your day has come
Honey, oh, the night, oh, the night is young"

The night is young
The night is young
The night is young

Woo hoo hoo

Someone's got their hands on you
Oh, what the hell are you gonna do?
As you know, oh, the night, oh, the night is young
Oh, I say, oh, the night, oh the night is young
