

We Lost Magic

Empires

Lady I got a thing for you
And I hope you like me too
There's no reason we should admit things
Talks for lovers dancing under moon beams
We're two strangers drunk in a taxi cab seat

It ain't my heart it ain't my heart
That's in your hands
Do what you want with it
It ain't my fault, ain't your fault
If this goes bad
We lost magic
We lost magic

Lady, I'll never read to you
And you'll never ask me to
You're so happy I'm so relieved
We can hide this memory under our sleeves
One man's watching but its just you and me
Oh its just you and me

Oh we'll disappear
And we'll never come back
And oh we'll disappear
We'll be unwelcome here
Oh we'll disappear
And we'll never be welcomed here
