

Bit Of Rain

Empress Of

You caught me looking at you
Laughing uncontrollably
It's undefined in the dining room
Underneath the table with your hand on my knee

You can call me baby
I feel like I'm stalling
You can call me baby

A bit of rain
A bit of thunder
I love the exchange
I want you under me
A bit of rain
A bit of thunder
I love the exchange
I want you under me

I caught you looking at me
Taking note of everything
You closed your eyes heavy blinds to a house
I want everything inside to spill out

(You can call me baby)
You can call me baby
Sounds good from your mouth
You can call me baby

A bit of rain
A bit of thunder
I love the exchange
I want you under me
A bit of rain
A bit of thunder
I love the exchange
I want you under me

In the thinness of the darkness
In the great scale of the night
I'm leaning against you
Like I'm leaning on a wall that's never gonna fall down

A bit of rain
A bit of thunder
I love the exchange
I want you under me
A bit of rain
A bit of thunder
I love the exchange
I want you under me

(You can call me baby)
(You can call me baby)
