

Broken

Empress Of

I feel broken
In a thousand little secrets
I'm all the creases in my smile
I get loose like scent
Forget me stumbling
I'm a little bit of hurt
I'm a little more than worse

Broken as ever been, nothing feels wrong
Sometimes falling isn't down
Broken as ever been, nothing feels wrong
Sometimes falling isn't down

I'm a fading light
A sunset in the winter
Keep my thoughts disguised
Heart is organized
I've been through this hell
Enough to know me well
For now, I'm a little bit of hurt
I'm a little more than worse

Broken as ever been, nothing feels wrong
Sometimes falling isn't down
Broken as ever been, nothing feels wrong
Sometimes falling isn't down

Nothing else but bruises

I'm the one who chooses every town
Contradict myself, I never ask for help
I never cross the line, I can't find my way back from
This won't be the last time

Broken as ever been, nothing feels wrong
Sometimes falling isn't down
Broken as ever been, nothing feels wrong
Sometimes falling isn't down
