

Wild Girl

Empress Of

I'm not jealous
I'm not frightened
Climb up to your lips
With a swiftness
In a murmur
Somewhere private
Suddenly my heart
Knows it's weakness is a

Half smile touch
Casually call you love
When your hand is enough
Casually say it's love
Casually say it's love
Casually say it's love
Casually say it's love
Casually say it's love

I'm a wild girl in the wild in the fire
Gather me from one place or another
Loving is enough with a kiss, with a kiss
Gather me from one place or another
One place or another

I'm not jealous
I'm not frightened
How could we separate now
In this silence
Little by little I'm Sinking right in
It's not a secret
My hearts weakness is a

Half smile touch
Casually call you love
When your hand is enough
Casually say it's love
Casually say it's love
Casually say it's love
Casually say it's love
Casually say it's love

I'm a wild girl in the wild in the fire
Gather me from one place or another
Loving is enough with a kiss, with a kiss
Gather me from one place or another
One place or another

I'm a wild girl in the wild in the fire
Gather me from one place or another
Loving is enough with a kiss, with a kiss
Gather me from one place or another
One place or another
