

Middleman

Empty Tremor

Here's the story that a man could not tell people never knew what really took place I've chosen him as a middleman of my desire a crime that cries out cries out for vengeance, loud!
"You can't stay alive anymore
you that cut my life
still I feel your knife deep inside you must reach the void
your life covered all the streets
it's time for revenge
it's time for revenge"
Only when everything has been done he'll be free I'm using me and I'm using him we're ready to kill !
"You can't stay alive anymore
you that cut my life
still I feel your knife deep inside
you must reach the void
your life covered all the streets
it's time for revenge
it's time for revenge"
Now !
