

Outside

Empty Tremor

She was standing outside my door
never shared my life walk never watched my miracle climb dancing out of my desire
keeping me away
far from my life show
she' s keeping me away
my life show!
but one strange day
in my steep road she was taking a place running faster
already there in my life she was still taking a place running my way
empty mirror with my image to paint just one way
just one play
it's too late, No !!!
close my eyes
all I see is something you can' t hide all I see has never been so mine I' m so tired to fight against your lies now I see in front of me you' re not real
now I see and I' m here on my own thinking about all my faults and I won't dare
anymore
anymore !!
