

The Message Keeper

Empty Tremor

PART I

(The light)

One shining day like the others strange creatures filled unreal lands loved their perfect world of light peace harmony and delight
human trouble
upset they were looking at our world so bad

PART II

(The message keeper)

"There stands the message keeper raise hands for his success"
They said
soon left his land
lost in darkness
creaking stairways
descending
through worrying clouds downfalling right to earth
kept proudly
his rich bundle
full of true love and peace
love and peace
coming down
love and peace
slowly appearing
now has touched the ground

PART III

(The flight)

flying through the valleys all around he's looking for someone
just for tuning with his mind
for tuning his mind
flying through the valleys all around
he's looking for someone
just for tuning with his mind
for tuning his mind

PART IV

(The message)

think about the happiness you're losing with your madness think about the sadness you're sowing with your anger or at least try to think about it

PART V

(The indifference)

and no one held his hand
all in one glass bell
back to unreal land
his message stands
