

Well you know, they say a new era's coming a new world will come with so many mornings strange shades are blowin'up and a cold breeze is moving my hair that's the dawn of a brand new day when everything could really take a final change the day when money could not buy the heart of all the precious things the day when we will be together all as one the day when all the wars will fade and we won't have to be afraid It comes from the dark
the dark of unknowing minds
we feel it's on the way
now it comes from the dark
the dark of unknowing minds
and a cold breeze is moving my hair
that's the dawn of a brand new day.
Now it comes from the dark
the dark of unknowing minds we realize in a while he arrives.
Why other ones stronger than me had not a chance, the fortune to see you at all.
Sometimes I feel like a leo, with no nails who can scratch it over, scratch it over sometimes I feel like a leo, with no nails who can scratch it over, scratch it over now I can!
Everything brings your name Y2K
everything brings your name Y2K Keep now your ancient promise scream, scream out, scream out loud, your name Y2K
scream, scream out, scream out loud, your name Y2K
