

Tonight

Empyr

I saw the youth dancing on top of the world
Killing violence forever
I felt the truth, a scream heard from above
Memories fade but faith grows inside

And it's so clear now
It's so pure now

Because tonight, tonight, tonight,
Is the first time you smile
It's the first time you scream
The tide inside will rise

I saw the old man wearing a doll's dress
He said "This land is yours so take it now
And plant the seeds of love and beauty and then Forget about regrets, forget about me"

And it's so clear now
It's so pure now

Because tonight, tonight, tonight,
Is the first time you smile
It's the first time you scream
The tide inside will rise

Can you remember your name
Tonight the pain is over
