

Way Out

Empyr

I remember your eyes when i was falling
I remember your face when i was dying
As beautiful as the first night on earth
As sad as i am, as sad as my last summer

You are my way out
Unusual, you are
My life, my story
My home, my family

Your innocence is a language i can't speak
I heard your tears in a very deep sleep
I saw you there near the shin eden square
Waiting for me, waiting till the end
