

Renovation

Empyrios

You have no control
Over the lies that you tell
And you borrow a new face
For every chance you take

They ask you not to be
And you won't back down
Raging against the flood
Let your ego drown

Driving down renovation road
Empty vehicles, drift in undertow
Final call, for a moral makeover
All defeat outrun, to seize the day, revived

Let your life unfold
Bursting the mask apart
Just like fire from a spark
Burn all your sins away

They ask you not to be
And you won't back down
Raging against the flood
Let your ego drown

Driving down renovation road
Empty vehicles, drift in undertow
Final call, for a moral makeover
All defeat outrun, to seize the day, revived

Faded sorrow, living out of bounds
Reach tomorrow, and feel alive

Driving down renovation road
Empty vehicles, drift in undertow
Final call, for a moral makeover
All defeat outrun, to seize the day, revived
