

My Enemies

Emtee

I pray for all my enemies
(Niggas that switched one me)
Yeah

Oh Lord I pray for all my enemies, my enemies, my enemies
They know I'm something that they'll never be, they'll never be, they'll never be
Where were you in the city we was busy plotting?
You change the channel when you see me doing my thing
I know, I know, I know you hate to see me shining
I know, I know, I know you hate to see me smiling

You was cool when I was broke
I'm not saying that I'm rich
We was homies yeah before
But you turned into a snitch
I be, I be on the road
Make a stop and buy some kicks
You be out here on your phone
Posting on some kinda shit

Oh Lord I pray for all my enemies, my enemies, my enemies
They know I'm something that they'll never be, they'll never be, they'll never be
Where were you in the city we was busy plotting?

I know, I know, I know you hate to see me shining
I know, I know, I know you hate to see me smiling
